ABOUT KLE UNIVERSITY:

With the KLE Society taking giant strides in transforming lives across the region, the KLE Academy of Higher Education and Research has been immensely successful in responding to the ever changing global demands in the field of Health Science education by offering Quality Education in Undergraduate courses to Post Doctoral programs in super specialty subjects. The primary task was to create “change ready” Health Science Professionals of extraordinary caliber, who are able to perform flawlessly at international arena in the highly complex world of Medicine, Pharmacy, Nursing, Physiotherapy and Ayurveda.

The University has been reaccredited with ‘A’ grade by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) in Cycle 2. These grades are accepted in 52 countries across the world and stand testimony to the academic excellence achieved by the University in its ten years of existence.

ABOUT US

KLEU’s College of Pharmacy: Formally commenced its courses in 1985. Located on Poona-Bangalore highway, in a picturesque campus, the college has every possible amenity required to impart professional education. The institute offers B.Pharm, M.Pharm, Pharm.D & Ph. D courses and B.Pharm course is re-accredited by NBA with effect from 13.12.2011.

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP:

The workshop is aimed at improving the ability of the participants to prepare their research manuscripts for publication and dissemination in scientific peer reviewed journals and also to fine tune the grant proposals. Through our workshop participants at every stage of their career would be able to objectively assess their current skill level, determine their strengths and weaknesses and focus on improving their scientific writing skills.

OBJECTIVES :

- Demystify the writing process and to enlighten the fundamentals of effective scientific and Grant writing.

WHO CAN ATTEND

- Teaching faculty / Research Scholars are invited to participate in the workshop.
